Frank V. Nestico

March 26, 1953 - December 11, 2021

Frank V. Nestico, age 68 of Lexington, MI, passed away unexpectedly December 11, 2021.
After filling many roles throughout his career from foundry worker to garage manager, Frank retired from Chrysler in 2007. He enjoyed camping, Blues music, and was an avid conversationalist who made many friends and acquaintances wherever he went.
Frank was born on March 26, 1953 in Detroit, Michigan to the late Vincenzo and Caterina (Mongiardo) Nestico of Sant'Andrea Apostolo dello Ionio, Italy.
Father of Vincenzo (Crystal), Joseph A, Maria and Lauren Nestico.
Grandfather of Layla (Brett) Goulder, Elizabeth, Joseph J, Corie and Jaxon.
Loving brother of Salvatore (JoAnne) Nestico and uncle to Melissa Nestico Hoos (Bradley)

Celebration of Life service planned for Spring 2022 at a date and place to be announced at a later time.

I met Frank in the mid 1960s when his family lived on Liberal across from my grandmother and uncle. Many years, many memories. A few years ago we crossed paths on fb, we used to have some heavy debates on politics. He was taken too soon, too young. Hopefully his parents were at heavens gates to greet him for everlasting life. I truly hope
My sister Pam did as well.

Frank we go back since we were kids and you lived on Burns in Detroit.You,Sammie and I would create chaos but had so much fun.
I recent years connected on Facebook, however I left Facebook a few years back.
I only found out when trying to look you up.
You have great parents waiting for you.

for you.
Rest in Peace my old Pisano.
