“ Beth, Ellen and families,
We are so sorry for the loss of your brother, Jerry. I remember Jerry as a very young boy coming to work with your Dad as they remodeled my Mom's kitchen. Jerry was so young and not very impressed with the work load put on him at the time but your Dad knew this would turn him into a fine young man, as he did. May you all be blessed with fond memories such as these.

“ My earliest memories are of Jerry and his father, George... When 10 years old, George Keglovitz selected me in a draft to play on a team he coached in the Crosswell-Lexington Little League. Those heady summer afternoons and evenings were the best of my youth! Jerry was a center-fielder capable of running-down any line-drive, fly-ball or shot headed for a gap or the fence!! He was a spark-plug that reveled in his position on the field and excelled as a leader on our talented team. LIFE would lend an early blow to the entire Keglovitz Family when his Father died unexpectedly of a heart attack. We were just 11. I' don't recall Beth or Ellen much beyond this time though I do have recollections of Jody and Joe and Mrs. Keglovitz...

I've often thought that Jerry likely suffered most from his fathers untimely death.

I hope he's been reunited in the loving arms of his father; a half-century departed. I pray they sit together on a creaking set of bleachers; a warm summer breeze filled with popcorn, neats-foot oil and the call of "BATTER-UP"!

“ We love you Uncle Jerry! Not only have you been my Uncle, but my silly neighbor I could always count on seeing nearly everyday, whether it be by a visit or just waving to you as you drove by. Growing up I had so much fun being funny with you, always joking around. Some of my favorite memories are dancing with you at our old house in town, and riding go-carts, or the jet-ski in the river! <3
