“ Lois was in the class of 1980.
She will always be remembered as a sweet woman that would help others and for her continual smile. All of our classmates grieve for her loss and for the Brodacki and Adams family.
RIP Lois. This was not the time we expected you to leave us, and you will live in our hearts forever.

“ Lois , I will sure miss seeing your smiling face every month when I went in to pay my light bill. But more than anything, I will miss looking for you to go by my house on your daily walk. I'm glad I got to decorate the tree as you asked me when I was going to. Now you will walk with God as one of his Angels. I will miss you

“ Dear Lois,

As a life-long acquaintance, then family-member; I don't know that I've ever shared with You what must be shared now... For that I am truly sorry!

Your bright smile and wit, your chuckle and smirk, your out-right laughter where such wonderful hallmarks unique to You!! The Man you married and the Family you introduced to US; will be that constant reminder of You and A-Life-Well-Loved!!

Our hearts are heavy and the grief is overwhelming... A scene will play in my head long after this post is forgotten.

Your husband, Chuck and Your brother Joe; clenched in utter agony within the waiting room; clinging to each-other and wrestling with whatever hope remained for your return to them... Vanished.

I pray you've found Family and Loved-Ones in your final resting place; and they've brought comfort and peace... Please let them know we haven't forgotten them; nor shall We Forget You!!

“ From Linda Kendel, Croswell crossing guard: "Lois, you always had a warm smile and a pleasant attitude. You will be sorely missed.

“ I remember seeing Lois when she was about 2 years old as I rode the same bus as her brother Tom to get to school. Later after teaching at Peck for 3 1/2 years I came to Croswell to teach at Cros-Lex. In one of those years I was a yearbook advisor and she worked on the yearbook staff. Always a smile on her face. I would often talk/joke with her when I paid my city bill. Her pleasant outlook and disposition will be missed by all. My deepest condolences to her entire family/friends.
