“ Sue was a wonderful wife, mother and sister in law, she seem to handle everything effortlessly yet a mother of five was really a busy person. Through the years you would expect her duties to diminish but Sue went full force thru life ill health or not. She loved all her grand children without reserve. She held down the fort while Jim traveled to provide for his family, they where a team from a very young age. They enjoyed family and friends and hosted many gatherings at there farm. They stood together thru good times and bad and found joy when happiness when many would have given up to sorrows. I know as I get older these things will happen but I wasn't ready to loose this light from the family. Please say a prayer for her and Jim they truly are two of what is best brother and sister in law that I could ask for...
