“ Many happy memories with Aunt Loretta, traveling across country to California several times to visit the Jeske's, lots of fun times up at the cabin, taking baths in the lake, thankful for the double seater outhouse, cause it's scary when you're a kid to go by yourself lol. Will sure miss you Aunt Loretta, You were an inspiration to all that knew you, enjoy your family reunion

“ Aunt Loretta was the best story teller. I loved going to her cabin in Roscommon and walking through the woods to the Whislestop to get candy necklaces!! I remember having to pee in a pot in the cabin at night. Otherwise, it was the outhouse!! You will be greatly missed! Have a great time in Heaven!!

“ Grandma D you will be missed. Thank you for all the childhood memories, trips to the cabin, the Whistle Stop and Call of the Wild. The large Call of the Wild Pencil/Banner will now even be more precious than it was in the past. Love you and will miss you much.
