“ Al will be greatly missed. He always had a warm smile, a good story and a hearty laugh. I was blessed to have known him these 30+ years and though we haven't met frequently the last 15 years or so, I feel a great loss knowing he won't be with us. Wish I could be there to say good bye. We will miss you Al but our lives are better for having been able to share a bit of our time here with you.

“ Dad----I have tried to prepare for this day and no one really can. So glad we had the time to "talk" while we could. You will be missed so very much, however you will live within us everyday. Every day I look at my daughters eyes I see you. Thank you for being my dad! I love you. Please be sure to guide and direct when you can!?

“ Al & Sandy were very good friends of my parents, Bev & Steve Miller. They were always "Uncle Al & Auntie Sandy" to me and I love them as much as if they were my "real" aunt & uncle. I cannot remember a moment of my life without them in it... and there were many, many happy & treasured memories. My love & condolences to Auntie Sandy, Alex, Scott, Todd & Debbie. xo
