“ I remember the first time I met Angela. It was in 1964 in an elevator at Nazareth College in Kalamazoo. We looked at each other's name tags and realized that we were roommates. We have been friends ever since. Angie was always fun, she was smart and generous and caring and interested in so many things. She was a good friend. As the years went by we didn't see each other as much as we would have liked but when we did see each other, we were always able to pick up where we left off as if no time had passed at all. Angie loved her family and felt loved by them. She really made a difference in this world and she will be missed. Beth Rager
