

Ann A. Kerrigan

September 22, 1931 - November 28, 2013

LEXINGTON: Ann Alee Kerrigan, age 82, passed away Thursday, November 28, 2013 in Port Huron Hospital.

She was born September 22, 1931 in Amadore to the late Howard and Edna (Jackson) McCardle. Ann and William D. Kerrigan married on November 28, 1953 in Croswell.

Ann was a teacher for 20 years in Croswell and held a Real Estate license in Florida after retiring from teaching. Ann enjoyed making stained glass, antiques, sewing, and was a member of many card clubs and dance clubs. Her family and friends were the most precious things in life to her. Ann was also a member of the 1st Presbyterian Church.

She is survived by her husband of 60 years, William; son Paul of Commerce Twp., daughter Colleen (Carl) Wurmlinger of Croswell; six grandchildren, Todd, Quinn, Tyler, and Gabrielle Wurmlinger, Alyssa and Jackson Kerrigan; sisters Jane Knust, Martha Pearson, Jane Melching, and Mary Lou (Lloyd) Stocker; brother-in-laws John (Betsy) Kerrigan, Jim (Helen) Kerrigan, and Mike (Pat) Kerrigan; and several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by a sister, Linda Maves, sister-in-law Katherine & Ed Meneghin, and brother-in-laws Charles Melching, William Pearson, Ken Maves and Tom Knust.

Funeral Services will be held 11 AM Tuesday at the Pomeroy Funeral Home, Lexington. The Rev. Kenneth Hetzel, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Croswell, will officiate.

Visitation will be held 2-8 PM Monday, and 10-11 AM Tuesday.
Memorials may be made to the American Lung Association.

“ When Jack and I moved here to Lexington, Ann was the first neighbor to come over and introduce herself. When I had my accident, she called and walked over to see me several times. She was a remarkable lady.
