When we were kids, Mom always dressed us alike. Although everyone thought we were twins, we'd always respond, "No, we're 22 months apart." Annie always got to wear pink, but I wore blue! So, Annie, here's a pink candle to you!

“ Many memories, I think my favorite is dancing. Going to the octagon house for hayride, spaghetti dinners and square dancing. Saturdays at Foster Inn with Annie & Dave. Dinner, live band & dancing til closing. These two were always on the dance floor. Christmas gatherings and yes Cookies many many cookies. Sending our deepest sympathy, keeping family in our thoughts and prayers.
