“ Even though it's been many years since we've been able to be together, my love for Little Armattie and all of my Cashman cousins always remained strong. I hope you can feel the hugs I'm sending you all now. Armattie was such a little monkey when she was little - climbing on top of the refrigerator, countertops, everywhere! What fun we all had when Mike and I would come stay with you all on the farm. Armattie always made us laugh! She's pretty special. I will miss her and will always love her. Your cousin Kimmie
