“ I will forever miss you Ben and i'll never forget you nor your kindness to me. You were like a brother to me and you considered my dad as your own. Your daughter didn't deserve this, she should've gotten to experience that kindness you always had. She should've gotten to see your art and your love for bikes. I know how much you loved her and it's in my prayers that she knows this. We still have your art on our wall to this day and every time I see it I think of you. May you rest in peace Ben, love you.

“ I first met Ben through My son, whom he worked with at Michigan Sugar. He wouldn't let my son work outside long in the frigid temperatures because of his asthma- so Ben pulled the weight out of genuine concern and unselfish determination to keep my boy safe (and NEVER complained!!). After that he rented from me, worked for me, and became a very dear friend that would do anything for me and my family- out of genuine respect and unselfish Love ❤️!! I will be forever grateful for the time I had with Ben G!!! Thank you Joy for making such a sweet soul and good man!! 🙏❤️ RIP buddy 💔

“ I remember when Ben and I were little and I would read to him at latchkey and he was my little side kick. Always such a sweetheart! I went to school with Jesse and he was always the best big brother to Ben. You will be forever missed, sweetheart! I am so sorry to Jesse and your entire family! I will continue to send my love and prayers!!

“ For as long as I can remember you were my best friend and my brother. You were always right by side and I know in the after life you will still be by my side. I remember being teenagers waiting at the end of the driveway in the morning drinking coffee with Bob, you would always put your cup in the mailbox lol. So so many memories. I love you so much brother.

“ Before his beautiful little girl was born i told him he was gonna be the best father out there because of how kind he is, he cried and started talking about how in order to teach me how to ride a bike he had to let go and i fell. Thinking of that now makes me laugh because without him i might still need training wheels to this day.

“ I moved to Croswell in 8th grade. Ben came up to me at lunch on my first day and he said “People were saying that you looked scary, but I think you look cool!” He was totally genuine, and he's kept up that impression the entire time I've known him.
