“ Well done Good and Faithful Servant! Enjoy Heaven Bess! We are really going to miss your strength, your faith, your love, your laughter, your friendship, your smiling face, your servant's heart, your wisdom, your yummy cooking, and everything that made you so amazing. You're service to The Lord, to your family, and to your community will never be forgotten. You leave a precious legacy, and a heritage of faith. Your memory lives on in the hearts and lives of your family and everyone who knew you. We are sad here without you, but are reminded of your eternal life, your full healing, your peace and comfort, and can only imagine the look on your face and the excitement you must have felt when you saw Jesus face to face - and therefore with tears in our eyes, we celebrate your home coming/going, and look forward to seeing you again one day. Until then, we pray for those left behind. We ask God to hold them close and comfort them. May they find their strength and hope in Christ, just as you did. May they live each day to the fullest, doing the work God has placed them here on earth to do, until the day they to are called home to be with Jesus, and are reunited with you.
Loving you and your family,

“ Bessie was a great aunt, mother, grandmother, friend, whatever she was she was good at. The jack of all trades of a family. Her kindness reached so many, even those that didn't know her. Be at peace aunt Bess.
