“ My deepest sympathy to Rose and her family. Betty was the sweetest lady I have ever met. One thing I'll always remember about her was her amazing faith she had in the Eucharist. The first time I had the privilege to bring her Communion it brought tears to my eyes to witness such devotion and faith. She was an inspiration to me. I'll miss her smile and her generosity. May the angels welcome her in paradise, may she Rest In Peace.
