“ My Sympathies are with all of you in the family. Betty Lou and Jack played music at my wedding December 11, 1965, and we had alot of fun. The last time I saw Betty Lou was at my Mothers funeral Oct. 2010...I always loved seeing her as well as Jack. They were such kind, fun loving, compassionate people. God Bless you Betty Lou.

“ I have fond memories of going to the Pine Hill School with Betty Lou. One day on our way home from school she helped me pick milk pods for the defense dept. We took the burlap bags full to school the next day. She was always friendly and kind to me. In our close knit community I had the pleasure of witnessing the love shared by Jack and Betty Lou during their courting days. God Bless,
