“ He was one of my favorite teachers. The best memory I have is when he came to school with a black armband because his beloved car he had for years died. I believe I had him the first year he taught at Cros-Lex

I thought Mr. Strachan was the best. I didn't have him for a teacher myself. I knew him when I was in Geiger school for 6th grade and I believe he was teaching 4th grade. Then I hung out with Scott and the group when I dated Randy Turcott in high school. (But I went to Cros-Lex). He was always so kind to me and always greeted me with a smile and kind words. I am so sorry for the family's loss. He was a great man. Sending love, hugs and prayers during your time of loss.
