

Carol S. Dawson

December 30, 1943 - November 13, 2023

Carol S. Dawson of Lexington passed away peacefully at home, surrounded by her family and friends on Monday, November 13, 2023.

Carol was born in Port Huron to the late Helen and Earle Deering. She was a 1962 graduate of Port Huron High School and earned her teaching certificate from EMU in 1966. She began her teaching career in Warren Woods, but soon had the opportunity to teach for Croswell-Lexington Schools where she continued her career for the next 37 years at the elementary level. Carol was a faithful member of Trinity Episcopal Church in Lexington. Her ministry included teaching Sunday school, vacation bible school, ECW, and serving as Senior Warden. She loved to spend time with her family and friends, wintering in Florida, golfing in the women's league, shopping with the girls, baking at Christmas time and knitting as a part of her prayer shawl ministry.

She is survived by husband Jerry, whom she was married to for 57 years. Carol and Jerry were so in tune with one another that Carol would inevitably finish all of Jerry's stories. Carol is also survived by 2 children, son Jeffery (Julie) Dawson; daughter Michelle(Troy) Irwin, 6 grandchildren Brendan, Mayson, Alli, Jackson, Colby, and Addison, two siblings, brother Mark (Debbie) Deering and sister Linda (David) Weiss, sister in law Marica (Larry) Adams, and several nieces, and nephews.

Carol was preceded in death by sister in law Grace.

Her life was full of fun, laughter, and many good friends and neighbors. During her last days, the love for Carol was obvious, many sat by her side sharing stories, music, and scripture.

Visitation for Carol will be at Trinity Episcopal Church Lexington on Friday, November 17, 2023 from 1pm-8pm, and Saturday, November, 18, 2023 10am–11am. A Eucharistic Celebration led by Father Edward King will take place at Trinity Episcopal Church Lexington, Saturday at 11am.

Donations can be made in Carol's honor to Trinity Episcopal Church Lexington.
