“ Carol was a sweet and funny soul who welcomed the stranger (me). She was a faithful woman of the Lord! I think of her often and I will continue to miss her.

“ Carol opened her arms to me back in 1978 when her daughter, Cheryl, became my best friend. She tolerated our countless hours of basketball in the driveway, diving into the pool at dangerous heights, endless sleepovers and our constant silliness. Carol's acceptance meant a great deal to me. I treasured the long drives to the cottage up north and the numerous experiences we had there. Carol also allowed me to tag along with the family to Cedar Point--my first time out of state. I remember the home grown rhubarb from the garden, the introduction to pomegranate seeds, homemade Golden Graham Smores and Rice Krispy Treats with chocolate chips. She shared Fudge Striped cookies and permitted us to drink Pepsi from a can-- a luxury at my house. I truly admired her dedication to her family and her faith. Carol helped broaden, brighten and change my world back in the day. I'll always appreciate her generosity and good will. I'm deeply saddened by her sudden departure. I thank Carol for welcoming me into her family a long time ago. I wish peace to family and friends who will miss her presence.
