

Caroline F. Suerwier

January 27, 1915 - October 23, 2010

APPLEGATE: Caroline F. Suerwier, 95, of Woodhaven, formerly Port Sanilac, died Saturday, October 23, 2010 in Applewood Nursing Center, Woodhaven, where she had resided since January 2008.

She was born January 27, 1915 in Rogers City, daughter of the late Herbert and Emma (Wirgau) Bredow. She and Arthur Suerwier were married May 16, 1934 in Carsonville. He died February 4, 1969.

Mrs. Suerwier was employed by the Arch Diocese of Detroit and retired as head cook from the C.Y.O. Camps in Port Sanilac. She was a member of the Applegate U. Methodist Church.

Surviving are two daughters Elaine (Loyal) Landrith of Franklin, KY and Carolyn O'Neill of Woodhaven. Eight grandchildren, and 15 great grandchildren

She was preceded in death by a brother Paul Bredow.

Funeral services will be held at 11 AM Friday, October 29, 2010 at the Pomeroy Funeral Home, Lexington. The Rev. James Barnett, pastor of the Applegate U. Methodist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in the Lexington Cemetery.

Friends may call from 7-9 PM Wednesday, 2-9 PM Thursday, and 10-11 AM Friday.

Memorials may be made to the Applegate U. Methodist Church, or Arbor Hospice, Ann Arbor.

Tribute Wall

“ Elaine, my thoughts are with you and Carolyn during this difficult time. So many fond memories of your Mom and mine as friends in the Good Old days. With love, Dee(Tiefert)Denham

Delores (Tiefert)Denham - October 26, 2010 at 07:36 AM