“ We are all praying for strength and comfort for the family. I am going to miss our conversations and your positive Godly quotes and knowledge 🙏 I value the family relationship we had. After years of not being connected you showed me family is family no matter how many miles or phone calls apart. You were a true genuine cousin and I am going to miss you.. until we meet again 🙏

I am saddened to hear this news. Chuck was a kind man and a part of my family. Whoever wrote his obituary did a wonderful job. I would like to know where he will be laid to rest.
