

Charlotte Emma Jamison

June 7, 1939 - January 3, 2013

CROSWELL: Charlotte E. Jamison, age 73, died Thursday January 3, 2013 at Port Huron Hospital.

She was born June 7, 1939 in Port Huron, daughter of the late Ernest & Lula (LaPores) Doan. She and Keith C. Jamison were married December 6, 1958 in Jeddo.

Charlotte was a licensed nurse's aid for 20 years and worked for Croswell EMS for 20 years. She was a member of O.E.S. Croswell Chapter #236, and attended Sandusky Baptist Church.

She is survived by her husband, Keith of Croswell; two sons, Daniel (Pamela) of Kenner, LA, and Hugh of Croswell; and three grandsons, Nathan, Michael, and Matthew.

She was preceded in death by a daughter-in-law, Kimberley Jamison. Funeral Services will be held 11:00 AM Tuesday January 8, 2013 at the Pomeroy Funeral Home, Croswell. The Rev. Brian Cuddie, pastor of Sandusky Baptist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in the Croswell Cemetery.

Visitation will be 2 – 9 PM Monday and 10 – 11 AM Tuesday. An O.E.S. service will be held Monday.

Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society.

“ My son Nathan wrote this and I want to share with my friends: The death of my grandma, Charlotte Jamison, was tragically unexpected and deeply saddening for us all. However the enduring support of my wonderful and loving family in response to God's ultimate plan shall forever remind me that her awesome legacy of genuine warmth and adoration for others will eternally ripple through each generation of all who were blessed to to know and be loved by such a special woman. Love and miss you always Grandma!!!

“ Keith & Family My deepest sympathy to you and your family. I feel a tremendous loss in Charlotte's passing and i will truly miss her. What a wonderful friend. We went through Cancer and radiation together 13 years ago and she was so supportive throught out our treatment and we remained friends. i know the angels i sent her for christmas guided her to heaven. She always remained in my prayers. God Bless her and may she rest in peace. Forever friends Karen Quinn
