“ Dick and I send to all of you, Tim, Trish, Katie, Peggy and sister Janice, our most sincere sympathy. We have wonderful memories of so many happy times. Who ever enjoyed a party more than your mom! It was a joy and an honor to have known your parents. I have picture in my mind of your mom meeting Jesus with both embracing and at the same time she is looking around Jesus and reaching for your dad’s hand. What a happy reunion !!! Our love to all of you, Dick and Nancy Brennan.

“ *I have so many wonderful memories of your Mom (your Dad also) Bob and I double dated with this great fun loving pair prior to all the nuptials. I have memories of the Mooneys and O'Learys at Fireside Inn when you were all children. Of course, we visited them at the Lake and they visited us NY, Savannah, Florida, and Las Vegas. Too many memories that are so precious
Just for fun..I gave her the pattern for the hat she is wearing...she was Cynthia of many hats.
My most sincere sympathy for all of you..you have lost a great one
