

David Stephen Replogle

November 18, 1941 - October 17, 2021

PORT SANILAC- David Stephen Replogle, age 79, of Port Sanilac, Michigan passed away on Sunday, October 17, 2021 of a heart attack.

He was born on November 18, 1941 in Detroit, a son of Catherine and Bill Replogle. He attended the University of Michigan where he met Marjorie. After their graduations, they married on July 4, 1964 and enjoyed 50 years together. Dave was a high energy, analytical and fun person who loved his family and friends. An engineer to his very core, Dave enjoyed a career at Ford Motor Company, which took Dave and Marj from Detoit to Japan and China and back. They learned to sail and spent many years on boats together with friends. Dave also loved to fish, hunt and travel.

David is survived by his daughters, Amy and Kris, their spouses Bob and James; grandsons Aidan, Connor, Liam, Eller and Owen; and brother Clyde Replogle.

Dave lived his life where friends became family and were cherished as such. Memorial plans will be established for Summer of 2022.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be sent to the Replogle Memorial Fund through the Sanilac County Community Foundation at www.sanilacfoundation.org and typing Replogle in the search bar (or <https://host.nxt.blackbaud.com/donor-form?scvid=renxt&formId=82152c84-ad42-42ce-808e-79cd1676c294&envid=p-qgWD03ZoEU--PeanlayPOQ&zone=usa>). “ Dave was a good neighbor who clearly loved Lake Huron, the Great Lakes and sailing. We loved hearing about the adventures of this Port Huron to Mackinac "Old Goat." In later years he wasn't sailing but still went up to Mackinac to watch the fleet sail in.
