

David C. Stephenson

June 22, 1950 - February 12, 2024

MARINE CITY- David C. Stephenson, age 73, of Marine City, Michigan, passed away on February 12, 2024 after a yearlong illness. He passed away in his home which was his favorite place to be.

He was born on June 22, 1950 to the late Leo and Jeannette Stephenson. David grew up in Marine City and made it his lifelong home. He attended Holy Cross School, graduating in 1969. He entered the United States Navy after graduation. David was a member of the Marine City Fire Department for many years serving as secretary. Among his many loves was a love of the outdoors. In his younger years growing up in the Blue Water area he was a skilled water skier, enjoying many fun summers on the St. Clair River. David was also an avid hunter and fisherman having been taught those skills by his father at a young age. He loved to hunt on his property and he always had a stocked freezer full of walleye. David had a great love for his home as he built it and saw to the caretaking of it. He and his lawnmower were best friends. He was an avid collector of all things “tools” and “toys” in his pole barn and spent many happy hours there on “projects”.

David will be deeply missed by family and friends.

David is survived by his devoted wife of 34 years, Marjorie Sedwick Stephenson; his children, Daniel Stephenson, Denise Nolan and son-in-law Henry Nolan; grandchildren, Bryanna and Namoi Nolan, Rebecca, Emily, Jamey and Jesse Stephenson; he is also survived by his siblings, Elizabeth Younkens and Michelle and Gary Herbst; also many nieces and nephews.

David was preceded in death by the mother of his children, Christine Orchard Stephenson. Also preceding him in death were his siblings, sisters, Judy Heyser and Jerri Lynn Stephenson, brother, Louis Stephenson and brother-in-laws, Bob Younkens and Tom Heyser.

A graveside service will be held at 11 A.M. on Friday, June 21, 2024 at the Lexington Municipal Cemetery. Fr. Donald J. Eppenbrock of the Ave Maria Parish- St. Denis Catholic Church in Lexington will officiate. Military Honors will be provided by the Croswell American Legion.

“ I got to know Dave over the years living across the road from him. I was always impressed with how meticulously cared for his yard and house were. It was easy to see he took a great deal of pride in his home. Always friendly, easy to talk to, and eager to share hunting stories. I know I will miss not seeing him on his mower across the road. Dave you will be greatly missed on Markel Rd.
