“ Dean and Bea were the most generous and caring neighbors at Surfside. Dean once loaned us the log splitting machine. He said I was probably making all the other women jealous because I was splitting the logs and not my husband. I will miss not being able to say hello to him. Rest In Peace dear friend. “ We'll always remember Dean as a kind, soft spoken man. Those special days working at the hunting camp and swimming at Higgins Lake are fond memories of time spent with Bea and Dean. Find comfort in knowing how proud he was of his wonderful family.
