“ I first met Debbie 9 years ago when she joined us at the Port Huron Musicale as our choral director. I was also able to make music with her in the soprano section of the International Symphony in addition to the many beautiful seasons of concerts we had at the Musicale. Debbie was and will continue to always be a huge inspiration to me and she dedicated her entire life to shaping young voices for the opera stage, church music, teaching, whatever they wanted to do they were quite prepared thanks to Professor Debbie! She will be so so missed. Rest in peace my friend I will think of you anytime I hear a beautiful Mozart line and I will always sing more boldly because of you. 🌹 🎵 Thank you Syd for agreeing to move to ice cold Michigan and share her with us. Her luminous talent and personality will always be remembered!
