Dennis or can I say after 79 years of friendship you were like my brother. You were stubborn and disciplined and sarcastically funny all the time. We went to school from first grade through college, And we were both in the Navy together during Vietnam years, we shared so many many many many memories even you coming to Paris to see me, I know you loved your cars. You loved the farm and the house you were the best we kept talking couple times a week up until just before you left us, I know you're at peace now love you so much, big brother. Love you love you love you.
