“ I was SHOCKED to learn of Dennis’ passing, especially considering how long ago that it was. Have very fond memories of my dear brother-in-law over the years. From the Halloween party years ago where he dressed as a very convincing woman and had everyone just cracking up to becoming the hero one year when we camped near him and we had torrential rain that was predicted to last the whole week. He promptly got materials together and set everything up so that we had a huge covering so that our huge group wasn’t stuck in their tents and campers. Dennis had a very infectious laugh and a very funny sense of humor. Dennis was a very fine person. Whenever I thought of him, it put a smile on my face. And his love for Wayne Newton and Celine Dion was undeniable! This world lost a truly good person. Happy 80th birthday in Heaven dear brother-in-law.
