“Mag and I first crossed paths as hospital volunteers with the GM Girls' Club and she was very active in many/most of their other community services activities as well. We travelled to the Canadian Rockies where she introduced me to quiche lorraine at the Chateau Lake Louise. While strolling through Banff, she spotted a candy store and ventured inside. She exited with bags of licorice in flavors and shapes I didn't know existed. When her mother purchased a new home in Phoenix, Arizona, with $5 down, Mag spent many vacations enjoying the sunshine and dry desert air. To preserve water, she landscaped with stones, rocks and various cactus plants. There were even blue stones arranged in the pattern of a stream with a little wooden bridge crossing over it. When that home was ultimately sold, she discovered the shores of Lake Huron were an easy drive from the family home in Lathrup Village for weekend beach vacations - and Mag loved the beach! She was very generous in sharing this peaceful haven with her numerous friends. Mag was a good golfer, a great cook, a hard worker, a free spirit, a kind and thoughtful person, a loyal friend and so much more. I will always remember her with that mischievous grin on her face and sparkle in her eyes. Unfortunately, most of Mag's friends passed before her but they are all together now reliving all of the good times shared on the shores of Lake Huron.”
