“ Don and I spent a lot of time together in High School. We were Mutt and Jeff. We were both kind of outcasts in High School so we naturally connected. We would go to neighboring high schools on friday nights in order to find a place to fit in peacefully. While I was attending CMU after getting home from Viet Nam, Dons wife Shelia was a nurse at the hospital at CMU. I came down with pneumonia and was hospitalized their, Shelia took great care of me during that time. Indeed it was very hard on them when they lost Jeffery. Like many of us Don did indeed go through his share of hardships but he did keep his positive outlook on life. He will be missed.

“ The last time I saw Don was at our 50th Class reunion. We must have spent 2 hours just talking about everything. He was always a regular visitor at our house in High school. He and my brother Harvey both played drums and Don and my brother Del shared their mutual love of cars and all sort so things. Don had an incredible sense of humor and could tell great stores to make you laugh. He went thru much in his life with the loss of a child and other set backs and still managed to keep a positive outlook on life. He will be greatly missed.
