“ Uncle Don and family came for a visit to my parents home in Wisconsin, and Uncle Don created a game from thin air. He had all of us sit around the kitchen table and place a ping pong ball in the center and told all of us to start blowing until the winner blew the ball off the table. We all were laughing so hard that no one could blow the ball especially Uncle Don. Uncle Don was the happiest man I ever knew. Condolences to Aunt Joanne and family. Rest in peace Uncle Don.
