

Donna Stock-Blower

February 24, 1959 - July 10, 2011

CROSWELL: Donna Stock-Blower, age 52, passed away on Sunday, July 10, 2011 in her home.

She was born February 24, 1959 in Warren, daughter of Ronald G. & Hazel I. (Hallums) Stock.

Donna was a florist and owned the Artful Garden in Port Sanilac.

She is survived by her fiancée Troy Maskell; son John Blower of Chesterfield; daughter Natalie (Matt Hickmott) Blower of Macomb; parents Ronald & Hazel Stock of Flagler Beach, FL; grandmother Alma Hallums of Sarasota, FL; brother Dean Stock of Lexington; and sister Theresa Moy of Chesterfield.

Memorial Service will be announced at a later date. Memorials may be made to Sanilac Co. Humane Society. Arrangements by Pomeroy Funeral Home, Crosswell.

Tribute Wall

TA

“ My deepest sympathy to Donna's family. My heart goes out to all of you! Donna & I had been close friends for years, we were young moms together, had many good times and lots of good memories. We laughed till we cried at times! We parted on bad terms and that was hard, years later we hugged and talked and I'm forever grateful. I hope she is at peace and I'm heartbroken for her family.

The Arnold's - July 25, 2011 at 08:30 PM

LS

“ we were very good friends with donna, but we lost touch with her in the last couple years we thought she moved out of state. we are so sorry to hear that she passed away could you please let us know how it happened thank you so much and again we are sorry and will miss her dearly take care 1-810 359-7624

Larren and Sandra Seiter - July 18, 2011 at 01:53 PM