“ I work with grandma Cindy. I enjoyed the pictures, stories and accomplishments that Donovan made in his short life. He brought smiles to many faces he had never seen, and the occasional awww! I will miss asking Cindy how the little man is doing. May the good Lord bless and keep you. My prayers to the family, and peace and joy for Donovan with the Lord. Janet Brown

“ Donovan came into this life with many broken parts. The doctors did their best to fix his body but you and his family fixed his soul. You brought him love, happiness and security. He blossomed into the Donovan we all adored. We will miss him and weep for him, but we want you to know that without you, he would never have experienced the joy of life and of being loved. Our thoughts and prayers are with you today and always.

“ Dear Donovan, By now you should have your hand firmly in your great great grandfather's and he should be telling you about all the fishing you will be doing. No more hearing aids, no more glasses...just running and laughing and being happy. A light went out in this world last night when God's little angel went home....Donovan Isaiha your smile brightened our world...We love you little man.

“ I pray that God wraps his arms around your family at this time. I enjoyed Donovan very much on our rides home every day, it was a big thrill to see him discovering new tasks for himself like a new word & trying to un-do his seat buckle by himself, saying goodbye to each of the kids on his way to the door. He blew me a kiss one day. This little guy is flying high now, I am proud to have met him.

“ May the love of those around you help you through the days ahead. We are so sorry to hear of your loss and our hearts and prayers are with you and the boys. Words cannot express the pain of losing a loved one, but to lose a child is a pain that tears at your soul. I know that this note will not help you heal, it will not ease the pain, it will not fill the emptiness; but, I hope that the prayers that come with it will help you find peace.

And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. -Romans 8:28
