

Doris A. Travis

April 22, 1931 - November 10, 2011

Doris Amelia (Bishop) Travis, 80, of Lexington Michigan died November 10, 2011, after battling a comeback from a second massive stroke and brain seizures that occurred on July 13, 2011. Lois May Durnell and R. Sue Haron, her two oldest daughters were by her side. Doris lived in the home of Thomas and Sue Haron along with her son Gary Frank Travis who has cared for her the past several years. Funeral services will be at 11 AM Monday, November 14, 2011 at the Pomeroy Funeral Home, Lexington. Visitation will be 1-4 PM Sunday, and 9-11 AM Monday. Burial will be in Lexington Village Cemetery. Doris was born in Gilbertsville, NY. April 22, 1931 the daughter of the late Arthur and Grace (Barber) Bishop of New York. She was predeceased by her twin brother Donald S Bishop, brother Raymond C. Bishop and two daughters who died at birth. Doris is survived by her sister Mary E. Bender and brother in-law James Bender of Maryland NY., her children, all of Michigan, Lois M. Durnell, R. Sue Haron, Kathleen D. Smith, G. Frank Travis, Robert G. Travis and Mary E Mace, and many nieces & nephews, grandchildren & great-grandchildren all of whom she loved dearly. Doris was raised in upstate New York, married and moved to Michigan where she lived out her life. She was a full time mom up and till her divorce. She then went to work for Botsford General Hospital where she retired some 20 years later. Doris was a loving mother (and father) to her children, many times going without so they could have. She enjoyed crafts, gardening, and Tiger Baseball. She was always a pleasure to be around. She had a million dollar smile that would melt the hearts of those around her. She will be sorely missed and affectionately remembered by those who knew her. God Bless you Momma.

“ Aunt Doris will be missed by a lot of people. She was a very sweet aunt. I have very good memories of being able to go stay at her house even tho she already had a house full of kids running around. We will pray for all you children who are left to grieve. It is very hard to lose such a sweet person as your mother was. We love you all. Love and prayers David, Cindy Bradish and Ted Travis
