“ I will always remember riding on horseback with Duane and being privileged to ride his horse, Duke.
Duane entertained an audience of friends with his music, singing, and engaged all with square dancing calls. He has always been so caring, kind and helpful to everyone. Thank you Duane. I will miss you tremendously.
Ride on Duane!

“ I remember Lynn telling me about the horseman her father was, riding the shore to shore trail more than one time. As a memorial to him, we will make a donation to Tall in the Saddle, a 4-H riding program for special needs students.

“ My favorite memory of Grandpa Duane was building the dog run at Scott and Becky's house in Brown City. We were taking a break and Grandma Jean made us HOT corn on the cob. He was my lookout and and backup. I didn't have a clue what I was picking. Best corn on the cob ever. He will be missed.
