

Edgar D. Keller

July 18, 1937 - April 30, 2014

LEXINGTON - Edgar D. Keller, age 76, died Wednesday, April 30, 2014 in his home. He was born July 18, 1937 in Detroit, son of the late Carl G. and Edith M. (Classen) Keller. Ed was a veteran of the U.S. Air Force. He loved spending time out on the golf course and was a voracious reader, typically reading a book each day; murder mysteries were his favorite. His quick wit and unique outlook on life were legendary. He cherished time spent with his family during their special summer reunions. He leaves behind many adoring friends who will miss him dearly. Ed is survived by his nephews Paul (Lucy) of Missoula, Montana, and David (Kirsten) of Sweden, nieces Ruth (Larry) Hento of Avon, South Dakota, and Rebecca (Doug) Vrazo of Ft. Worth, Texas. 23 great nieces and nephews, as well as one great-great niece, and one great-great nephew. He was preceded in death by his brother Alfred. Funeral Services will be held 1 PM Saturday, May 3, 2014 at the Pomeroy Funeral Home, Lexington. The Rev. Maureen Baker, pastor of the Lexington U. Methodist Church, will officiate. Inurnment will be in the Lexington Cemetery. Friends may call from 11-1 PM Saturday. Memorials may be made to the Oakland Literacy Council.

Tribute Wall

“ I believe I went to high school with Edgar. Condolences to the family. Duane Kleino

Duane - May 06, 2014 at 09:58 AM