“ Yet another angel gone before us! Seems like just yesterday we laughed till we cried watching old videos of times spent at the cottage with you, Billie, my Mom and Dad (Nando & Dilva), Freddie, Dante, Armida, Auntie Marie, Don, Jane, William, Kathleen, Tom, John, Dan, Anne Marie, Michael, Bob, Jim and George. Not sure I got it in the right order but had to at least try. I just wished I was old enough back then to truly appreciate the special memories that were being made as they were being made!!! You were such a warm, loving, smart, strong yet gentle soul Eddie!!!! I always loved listening to the stories you told. So happy I was able to bring my Mom up to Lexington to see you a few times so you could happily reminisce of the good ole days and the loves of your lives that had gone before you both! No need to long for them any longer as you are all now reunited together again. What a celebration that must be! I'm sure my Mom is making the pasta frita (fried bread) and there is the best wine ever to go with it. We are missing you all so very much. Until we all meet again!! So very sorry we were not able to come to the funeral to share our special memories in person. Please know that me, Theresa & Luisa & our families are there in spirit and in prayer!!! Love you all! xoxoxo
