“ My Grandmother was beautiful inside and out. I was blessed to share over 40 years of life with this wonderful woman. The last visit I had with her, she was still smiling and telling jokes- she was witty as always (even in the hospital). She even gave my husband grief for breaking his shoulder. Eleanor was always happy to see our family and we were just as happy to spend time with her. I will miss you you dearly, Grandma. Our conversation, visiting your home and hearing the stories about the "church gang" will be missed. But you are now with the Lord and knowing that one day, I will see you again, is enough to make me smile, even during this great sadness. Love You Grandma!
