

Elio Viscogliosi Sr.

February 14, 1939 - November 4, 2023

CARSONVILLE- Elio Viscogliosi, Sr., 84, of Carsonville, died Saturday, November 4, 2023 at his home.

He was the husband of Susan K. (Hartleb) Viscogliosi. They were married on June 8, 1963. Born in Arpino, Italy, the son of the late Antonio and Assunta (Zompetta) Viscogliosi. He came to the United States, October 10, 1956, when he was 17 years old. He made America his country, but brought Italy to his family. The life that he created for himself here was filled with laughter, joy, kindness and peace. He had a special relationship with the outdoors and he loved his horses and giving his grandchildren buggy rides. He was a man of great strength, who was truly humble, hardworking and quiet. His actions spoke louder than his words and his love centered upon his family. His greatest gift to his family and friends were the virtues that he lived: courage, generosity, compassion, gentleness and perseverance. His finest moments, were those spent with his wife, Susan, his beloved son and daughter-in-law, Elio and Ruth, Jr. all of Carsonville. He will continue to guide and protect always his three beloved grandchildren, Tori, Ean and Ethan. He remains in the hearts of his two sisters, Marianna and Elvira both in Italy; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his sister, Lina and brother and sister-in-law, Giovanni and Anna Viscogliosi.

Visitation will be from 11- 1 P.M. on Thursday at the Pomeroy Funeral Home in Carsonville.

Funeral services will be held at 1 P.M. Thursday afternoon at the funeral home. Fr. Donald J. Eppenbrock of the Ave Maria Parish- St. Marys Catholic Church in Port Sanilac will officiate. Interment will follow in the Port Sanilac Cemetery.

Dear Uncle Elio, you are not out of our thoughts and mind, just because you are out of our sight. You're just around the corner: you're where we are. Your nephew Saverio and his entire family
