“ I am fortunate and grateful to have met Eva and be able to call her mom. The love she had for my dad and the family she gave him that he always wanted will always be remembered and cherished. She cared so much about family; always checking in on my husband Victor with his health. She supported us with every decision and never let a moment go by where she wasn't letting us know how proud she was of her kids. A firecracker, dedicated, hardworking, funny, and mighty are just a few words out of a million to describe Eva as a person. We are going to miss being able to see her and hear her laughing and cracking jokes; however, it is not goodbye forever just for now <3
