

Frederick M. Sedwick

February 1, 1924 - May 20, 2015

DUNEDIN, FL: Frederick M. Sedwick, age 91, formerly of Lexington, died peacefully surrounded by his family on Wednesday, May 20, 2015 at River District Hospital, East China..

He was born February 1, 1924 in Port Huron, son of the late William & Izora (Huggett) Sedwick. He and Betty L. Foley were married September 12, 1946 in Lexington. She passed away on December 20, 1979. He then married Elizabeth Tate who passed away in February 2004.

Fred was a U.S. Navy veteran in World War II and witnessed the Japanese surrender in Tokyo Bay. He was the former owner of Foley's Market in Lexington. He was Past Master of the Lexington Lodge #61 F.&A.M., was a member of Commandry Knights Templar #27, and member of the Lexington O.E.S. #137. He loved to do crossword puzzles.

He is survived by his daughter Marjorie (David) Stephenson of Marine City; stepchildren John, Jane, Liz, Jim, and Kate; and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his brothers George, Edward and William, and a sister Katherine.

No services are planned. Inurnment will be in the Lexington Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

SF

“ Dearest Marjorie and family, we are thinking of you at this most difficult time. Your Dad, my Uncle Fred was such a wonderful man and always there for a welcoming conversation & advice...He will be sadly missed however, now joining all of his brothers and sisters now. May God bless you all our cousins. In Peace, Sandee, Pete, Claudia and Ally

Sandee (Sedwick) Facy - June 02, 2015 at 01:37 AM