“ As many people knew him as George, I was apart of the lucky few that knew him as pappy. Pappy always had a way of brightening the whole room. I will never forget the way you used to sing, the way you would tell your stories, and the way you waved goodbye to me the last time I saw you. I will miss your hugs, nobody ever hugged me the way you did and nobody ever will. I am so honored to have gotten to have you as my grandfather. I can't wait until I see you again. Party it up in Heaven and give Cecil some good loving. Cheers to you.

“ I was so blessed to have met George, I will never forget the first time I met him, it was at a bridal shower. He struck me as the perfect gentleman and I could see why Karen was smitten with him. He was sharp and polished, very kind and a real gentleman. We are very sorry for Karen's loss and our hearts go out to her and the Vanderhoff family. May His spirit live in you each day with hope and love. With our most sincere regards for your loss. Love, Hans and Zan.

I will remember you for your warm welcoming every time we met. From the time we met at work at "Walmet" many years ago when you introduced me to your sister, whom I was married to, you always were a fun and friendly guy. I will always remember what you said as you arraigned for Gail & I to meet, in your best Mexican accent "You want to buy my sister"
I will also always remember the way you did your imatation of "Mik Jagger" singing and strutting across a stage - you nailed it!
Until we meet again - God Speed!

“ Unfortunately I never had the opportunity to meet George. KC and I worked together several years ago and from knowing her and what a delightful person she is, George must have been the best guy since sliced bread. The love that KC has for him was far more than obligatory, it was a love story we all wish we had. May George rest in peace and KC continue to carry his love in her heart and smile.
