“ I was Gloia's roommate at Regency in May. She wasn't able to communicate, of course, but there was something so tender, sweet, and kind in her eyes that I immediately felt love real love for her. She was so touching. And if she impacted me so quickly and completely, I can only imagine how much you all, her family, feel that loss. I think I will always carry the memory of Gloria in my heart. May God bless each of you in your grief.

“ As I sit here crying, like I always do, I find happiness in knowing that you have made your last move to your new forever home and will now rest in peace. We both continuously claimed to not be able to remember things, but there truly are so many memories. Adventures to the back 40 with the little guys, every holiday family dinner, our vacations, all of the shopping trips throughout all of these years, our daily check in calls. You lived your life by setting the perfect example of being a strong, independent, loving and caring woman. Your faith and positive attitude has molded all of us forever. I'm still learning how to live without Dad and will start to learn how to live without Mom. Much Love Always! Karen

“ There are so many memories! For me, 38 years worth! I'll always remember the card games, board games, teaching us all how to line dance. I told dad, "without grama, I wouldn't know the electric slide." I always loved how I could stop by at anytime and have lunch, watch TV and just sit and be in each others company. The phone calls just to say hello. And last be not least, the great grand babies! The way you loved my boys, all the boys. Grama you showed them, all of us, love and compassion no matter what. Oh! And Lady Lana and Sir Drake! The pair of geese you and Drake watched year after year return to the back yard. Forever missed and loved beyond words! Rest easy, grams!
