

Helen E. Cline

July 9, 1940 - December 10, 2020

Helen Elaine Cline, age 80, of Croswell, formerly Tapiola, passed away Thursday, December 10, 2020 in her home.

She was born July 9, 1940 in Trimountain, daughter of the late Charles and Laila (Karna) Torro. Helen married John M. Cline on April 15, 1961 in South Range. They would have been married 60 years this upcoming April.

Helen enjoyed gardening and talking on the CB radios. Her family and friends all enjoyed the wonderful meals and food she would cook, as well as her infectious laugh and humor. She loved her dog Lily. Helen and John were good friends with the Mennonite community.

Helen is survived by her loving husband, John; daughter Karen Vanderhoff of Croswell; grandson, George II (Beth) Vanderhoff; 2 great grandchildren, George Vanderhoff III and Sydney Tosto; and 2 sisters, Shirley Kahler of Metamora, and Beverly Butcher of Croswell.

Helen was preceded in death by her brother, Kenneth Torro, sisters, Betty Raisanen, Elsie Maki, and Dorothy Parker; and son-in-law George Vanderhoff. A Memorial Service will be held at a later date.

“ I will truly miss calling you and asking you for your assistance in how to prepare something and how much should I make for a big crowd of people. A lot of wonderful memories through the years. We've laughed and cried together. You will be missed by everyone you came into contact with. Love you always. Rest in Peace.
