“ McKenzie used to have a monthly “paper” called the Capsule. One morning in early spring, the dirt roads were a rough mixture of ice & mud clumps. As I headed to work, it was still dark out. As I approached another pile of muddy ice on the dirt road, it suddenly came to life & there was a little snow owl in the road. Unable to stop, I ran over the poor owl. I felt terrible and shared my story with several people at work. When The Capdule came out the following month, a notice had been placed that read “ anyone interested in donating to the “ Save the Owls” fund should contact Roseann Kopacz. Can you guess who placed the notice? If you guessed Helen you would be right. I have many good memories of this special lady.
