“ Ken, Kim, Kurt and families.
I'm so sorry to be late in sending my condolences to you all. (I've been recovering from some surgery.) However, my memories of your Mom go WAY back. She taught me in the second grade at Lakeview School on Mortimer Line Road in the early 40's. It was a pleasure and she was such fun. Teaching country schools was not easy, I'm sure. K-8 grade altogether? We could depend on her putting any of the older school mischief makers to right....and I distinctly remember one winter day when she thoroughly snow-washed the faces of a couple of boys who were misbehaving. Then on to Meyer's School in Lexington where she taught my children. That's a firm legacy to be proud of. I didn't do so badly in life and neither have my kids....coming up under that kind of tutelage. I am first cousin to your Mom and Dad and loved them both. Blessings to all of you.

“ Sorry to hear of your loss. My condolences to the entire Nunn family. It was my pleasure to know both Helen and Harold for many years. WE were across the street neighbors for one year when we were first married and street neighbors for the rest of the time. She had a long life and I hope you can keep all of your pleasant memories.

“ So sorry to hear of Helen's passing. I remember her wonderful service at the church and the friendship she offered us "City Folk", when we became part of the church. She was a wonderful helper at Vacation Bible Schools. Speaking of the quilts she made, I remember the beautiful purple flowered Dresden Plate quilt she made for her granddaughter, Andrea for graduation. Her piecing was perfect, an awesome labor of love. Helen was such a lovely lady, I am pleased to be able to say I knew Helen. Now at rest in the arms of her Lord. May God bless and comfort her family, Jerrie Lynn Robinson
