“ Hi I wrote this message on your Legacy of Jim: (but forgot something)

Hi Laura, This is Cindy Williams, your old buddy! I am so sorry for your loss of dear Jim. We used to have so much fun back in the day. Weird thing is, I was just talking about Jim to my brother last week, telling him how Jim use to make prank calls to our families, friends and his mom - speaking like a Chinese person saying they never picked up their "oda" and would have to do dishes and he would keep arguing with that person. He was so hilarious, and I am sure he is very much missed. I know you were with him way over 50 years and have so many great memories of him. I can think of so many things he said to me that made me laugh as i had so much fun with the two of you! Please give my condolences to Paulette and Brian. Love always, Cindy

I forgot to add, anytime i went over To your home in Warren, Jim was either on the floor picking up crumbs, washing it with a rag, mopping, doing dishes, vacuuming, or cleaning up the table. He was hilarious, such a neat freak!

“ Jim was always so kind, every morning making sure to say good morning. He was a pleasant smile in the middle of a stressful day and never complained. He was by far one of the hardest working men I've had the pleasure of working with. I am truly sorry for the family's loss and will be keeping you all in my prayers. We love you, Jim.

“ Jim was always fun to be with especially on bike rides. He enjoyed riding on 2 or 3 wheels. You could count on Jim buying the first pie, usually chocolate, at our Church Bazaar. I will miss Jim and his positive attitude. Wayne
