

James R. Moss

November 13, 1941 - January 24, 2013

LEXINGTON- James R. Moss, age 71, a resident of Lexington passed away peacefully in the presence of his family on Thursday January 24, 2013 at the Port Huron Hospital. He was born on November 13, 1941 in Milan, Tennessee the only child of the late Leonard and Pauline (Ligon) Moss. Jim married his childhood sweetheart and best friend Pamela Frisbie on May 4, 1963 at the Faith Lutheran Church in Detroit. The couple have been very happily married and devoted to each other for the past 49 years. Jim proudly served his country in the U.S. Navy during the Cuban Missile Crisis.

Jim was a Power Lineman for Detroit Edison starting in 1964 and retiring in 2003. He loved to ride his motorcycle and drive his street rod. Jim was hard working and deeply devoted to his family. His family meant the world to him and he would do anything for them. He dearly loved his grandchildren and could not spend enough time with them.

Jim is survived by his cherished and beloved wife Pamela Moss of Lexington, his loving children Christopher Moss of Port Huron, Jonathan (Sylvia) Moss of Chicago and Melissa (William) Jones of Kimball. His beloved grandchildren James, Nicole, Jacob, Madeline, Daniel, Sarah, Rosalie and Charlotte. Jim was sadly preceded in death by two sons James Moss, Jr. and Thomas Moss both in 2008.

A Memorial Service celebrating Jim's life will be held at 1 P.M. on Saturday February 2, 2013 at the Lexington United Methodist Church. Rev. Timothy Ziegler will officiate. Family and friends may call at the church from 12-1 on Saturday. A luncheon in his honor will be held in the church fellowship hall immediately following the service.

Memorials may be made to either the Lexington United Methodist Church or the American Cancer Society.
