“ I can remember the long talks we had and the love you displayed in all the words you have ever spoken to me. As a child that was so far from my blood grandmothers, you had taken me and my family in as your own. I remember the day you moved back to Michigan, as a young boy I didn't understand why you had to go. It was just something I had to except. I only wish I could have shown you the family I have made on my own and the life that I know live. My beautiful wife , Christina, and my two kids Grace Ann and Malichi Helka will now only hear memories of you. Your the only grandmother I had ever knew! Love your grandson, Donald Helka

“ Mom's Journey Home

One day my Mom heard His voice, He spoke to her you have a choice, His call was really clear you know, And she said yes for you I'll go, My life and will are in your hands, I will obey all of you commands, The time is short I must agree, Christ paid my debt on Calvary, The perfect lamb such a sacrifice, To redeem my soul and save my life, The love he showed unconditionally, He paid the price for You and Me.

With all my love, Your daughter Sherri
