“ Sorry to hear about John's passing. We grew up and played together in the 50's. We were both at Ft Knox, Kentucky in 1967. His sister drove us from Croswell to Detroit and we took a bus to Fr. Knox. When we got home from the service, we kept in touch and usually talked about the good old days. Prayers for the family. R.I.P. John.

“ I took care of John while he was at mclaren and let me tell you, he was a one of a kind patient! He had the best sense of humor and has the best family! John always had a huge smile on his face and always remained positive while on our unit. He was definitely a patient that made you look forward to coming to work to! Sending my deepest condolences to the Hinojosa family ❤️
