“ As a child I remember Mr. Johnstone as a very gentle, quiet, peaceful man. I was a tribute to him to see all of his children at his final liturgy. George's eulogy was wonderful as was the biography written by Matt (?) filled with things I never knew about him. Peace to all of you; it's been a long journey.

“ Sorry I was not able to attend the memorial service. I took 5 girls from our church to Battle Creek for Kids Fine Arts that day. I enjoyed our visits with Uncle Purvis, Aunt Eunice and cousins down the block, each time we visited with Grandpa William. He was such a kind and thoughtful man. He loved the Lord and is now celebrating in heaven in the prescence of Jesus. My prayers are with you all at this time of loss. Love you, Margie, Art, Emily, & Tyler Haloostock

“ Rachel,
I'm sorry to hear about the loss of your father. I know you told me that he fought for a long time with his illness; it is tough lose a parent. May God bless you and your family during this time of loss. We'll talk when you get back.
Take care,
Joe Stevens

“ Uncle Purvis will surely be missed. He was a great man. I have very fond memories of going down the block from Grandpa William's house to Uncle Purvis' so that we could play with our cousins and visit with him and Aunt Eunice.

My thoughts and prayers are with the family at this difficult time.

Love, Sue Anne, Chris, Josh, Jordan & Kayla

“ Extending deep and heartfelt sympathy to John's family and friends. No matter how far people we love go, they will always remain close to our heart because they leave behind them beautiful memories for us to cherish.

May you be comforted by those memories, and they bring you strength, comfort, and peace. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ Life is not measured by the breaths we take but by the moments that take our breath away. I know it is difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, but looking back in memory may help comfort you tomorrow. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ My sympathy and prayers to the family of John P. Johnstone. I have many memories of John through the years, esp. with the Knights Of Columbus. I pray and say as we have been doing now for centuries: "Eternal rest give to him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine on him. May he rest in peace! May his soul and all the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace."
